ROTARY ON THE ROAD AT STRANAHAN THEATER

MONDAY,
SEPTEMBER 9, 2019

STEPHEN HYMAN
STRANAHAN THEATER
50TH ANNIVERSARY

In less than a month the Stranahan Theater and Great Hall will turn 50! Its contribution to the Quality of Life in our region cannot be quantified. The story gets even better, when we point out that this was a gift from R.A. Stranahan Jr. to the community. What we have is a privately built, privately owned, and privately operated 2,500 seat regional theater serving southeast Michigan and northwest Ohio. Over those 50 years we have watched our local attraction become a regional destination within the Primary Secondary Markets of the entertainment industry! Stephen Hyman came here in 2014, bringing with him 25 plus years of experience in venue management and operations and event booking, within the entertainment industry. His entire career has been within Primary Secondary markets. He has operated three different Arenas, an NCAA Division 1 Indoor Football Stadium, and two Regional Meeting and Conference Facilities. He will provide us with his perspective on where we will be in the next ten years and beyond.

Rotary International's Equity, Diversity & Inclusion Statement

“As a global network that strives to build a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change, Rotary values diversity and celebrates the contributions of people of all backgrounds, regardless of their age, ethnicity, race, color, abilities, religion, socioeconomic status, culture, sex, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Rotary will cultivate a diverse, equitable, and inclusive culture in which people from underrepresented groups have greater opportunities to participate as members and leaders.”

Rotary International's Board of Directors, 2019

Inclusion & Engagement Matter within Rotary

80% of Rotarians who are engaged with their club are likely to remain a Rotarian.

65% of Engaged Rotarians plan on volunteering for a service project.

89% of Engaged Members say that “Failing to make friends or connect with others lessens member’s connection to their club and to Rotary overall.”

83% of Rotarians who feel that the activities fit their interests, skills, and availability have greater involvement.

How to Manage Bias and Be Consciously Inclusive at Rotary

- 1. Take an Implicit Bias Awareness Test:
Go to www.tolerance.org for a free, 10-minute assessment.
- 2. Be approachable:
Smile, offer your hand, and let others know you want to interact with them.
- 3. Make a conscious effort to avoid biased language:
“Those people, radical, left-wing, right-wing”
- 4. Notice exclusion & do something about it:
When you see someone standing and looking for a place to sit, invite them to join you. Welcome others into your conversation. Introduce them.
- 5. Include equal gender and race in decision-making processes:
In committee representation, grant selections, etc.
- 6. Ask questions – Be curious:
Remember the Elements of Individuality exercise. There is always something new to learn about others.
- 7. Confidently address implicit biased attitudes:
Do this confidentially and with caring concern.
- 8. Get out of your comfort zone:
If you always sit with the same people, or at the same table, join a new one. Or better yet, invite someone new to sit with you and meet your friends.
- 9. Get to know your colleagues and peers prior to making any negative judgments.
