Lee J. Strang

Lee Strang is the founder and Board President of the Northwest Ohio Classical Academy which promotes "classical education". The mission of Northwest Ohio Classical Academy is to train the minds and improve the hearts of young people through a rigorous, content-rich classical curriculum in the liberal arts and sciences, one that produces thoughtful leaders and virtuous citizens. Lee is a graduate of Harvard Law School and an expert in classical education and its benefits to communities.

Lee is also the author of Originalism's Promise: A Natural Law Account of the American Constitution and he has written numerous articles and publications regarding education and the constitution. Lee volunteers for several organizations including the Boy Scouts of America and Central Catholic High School. He lives in Berkey, Ohio with his wife, Elizabeth and their 7 children.

Welcome New Rotarians!

TROY HENDRICKS

Troy is Director of Visiting Angels of Toledo & Bowling Green which provides inhome care to elderly seniors throughout Toledo.

Troy started his career at a High School English Teacher and taught English as a second language in Spain for 8 years. He began to work with a colleague working with adults with autism where he witnessed the correlation between autism and dementia. This led Troy to his current position. He enjoys cooking and working with the international students at the University of Toledo helping them with the English language.

ERICA HALADA

Erica is Executive Director of the Toledo Public Schools Foundation and has a decade of not-for-profit development experience. Her daily leadership goal is to drive the influence of not only the organization but the surrounding community. In her current role Erica's leadership at TPS has transformed the organization's mission and alignment with the district to focus on enhancing the education experience for the students. Please welcome Erica!!
