100 Things To Do In Toledo Before You Die

Tedd Long
Toledo Historian
Author/Storyteller

From a hip urban downtown overflowing with arts and culture, to exciting activities and must-visit spots surrounding the city's core, the Toledo region is a wonderful metropolis waiting to be discovered. Local author and master storyteller Tedd Long's unique appreciation for the city comes through on every page of his new book, "100 Things to do in Toledo Before you Die" and even longtime residents will find something new to do among his suggestions. Join us on Monday, to hear Tedd as he talks about his books, tours, and local history blog, www.holytoledohistory.com.

Tedd will talk about how outdoor enthusiasts can explore miles of trails in the Toledo Metroparks. Water sports abound, such as boating or fishing on Lake Erie or kayaking on the mighty Maumee River. Feeling festive? Mark your calendar for the many family-friendly ethnic festivals Toledo has to offer. Craving a taste of Toledo? Make reservations at the restaurants and bars included in the pages of his book. Plus, in addition to great ideas for your next Toledo adventure, this book offers insider tips to make every experience even better.

Whether you're new to the Glass City and interested in becoming a certified Toledoan or just exploring how to spend your next Saturday afternoon around town, this book is for you! Local author and master storyteller Tedd Long's unique appreciation for the city comes through on every page, and even longtime residents will find something new to do among his suggestions.

UHG... RSVPs!!

As we transition to in-person meetings at our new home, we know it has not been without hiccups. Hopefully, as we all get back into the swing of actual meetings again, the process will become a little less painful, but yes, RSVP is required. The good news is, the website has been changed to make the RSVP link a bit more obvious and the lunch ticket checkout process has been updated. Please give it try and if you have trouble, please contact Abbey at asachs@toledorotary.org.
