Sean Donegan
President & CEO
Satelytics

Sean Donegan is the President and CEO of Satelytics. He brings over thirty years of technology and software development experience to the company. A dynamic leader, Sean's career has been focused on building companies through creativity and innovation, recruiting highly effective teams in order to solve customers' toughest challenges. Sean has founded or owned four successful software companies, most recently Sean Allen LLC which was focused on predictive analytics in the oil and gas marketplace.

With his energetic leadership style, Sean has always believed in building talented teams whose members are laser-focused on problem solving, results, and financial objectives. These qualities were illustrated during his 15-year tenure as CEO of Westbrook Technologies, Inc. where he transformed a failing enterprise into a highly profitable document management software global leader with customers in 52 countries. Sean earned an undergraduate degree from University of London and a post graduate professional qualification from the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants. Sean lives in Hunting Valley, Ohio.

Meetings from November 1st through

Monday, October 25th Recap Rotary on the Road!

Kelly Beattie
Fort Meigs Historical Site

Unfortunately,
there is no video
recap of this event.

On Monday, we traveled to Fort Meigs Historical Site where Kelly Beattie shared news about some upcoming events scheduled at Fort Meigs Historic Site along with recent changes that will be new for 2022. He provided some historical recaps and answered questions from Rotarians about what historical events have happened at the battlefield many years ago! After the program concluded, many were able to take a tour of the Visitors Center Museum, where staff from the Fort shared a wealth of historical knowledge.

*Due to the event being on the road, we do not have a video recap of this meeting to share with you.
Thanks for understanding!*
