As northwest Ohio's leader in workforce education and training, Quinton Roberts works with companies and individual students to help close the skills gap and produce job-ready workers.

Quinton Roberts is the Owens Community College Dean of Workforce and Community Services. Prior to working at Owens CC, Quinton rebuilt the Mott Community Corporate Services division through continuous engagement with companies to understand and service their workforce needs. He is passionate about working with companies and students and strives to make Owens CC an indispensable partner to the region's industry partners.

Quinton grew up in Lansing, MI and attended the US Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO where he majored in Organizational Behavior and was a 3-yr letterman on the Academy's varsity football team.

Following graduation, Quinton served 8 years in the Active Duty Air Force as a Space Operations Officer, rising to the rank of Major before attending and graduating from the College of William & Mary Law School.

In addition, Quinton is an adjunct faculty member teaching Business Law, and he volunteers as an Admissions Liaison Officer for the US Air Force Academy. He is also a 7yr Rotarian, and a past president of the Genesee Valley Rotary Club in Flint, MI.

Finally, Quinton is married to his high school sweetheart, Carrissa Roberts. Quinton and Carrissa are the proud parents of Cabria, Angelica and "Little Q," and the proud grandparents of Omar and Harper.
