Foundation Chairman Jim Layman states:
"We're trying to foster a culture of giving in our Club that encourages every member to consider support for our fundraising efforts to be as much a part of their membership as attending the weekly meetings. We know our goals are ambitious, but we have a great team working on the Campaign and we are confident that you all, being the kind of people who join Rotary, will recognize the importance of this effort. Please join me in giving a gift that is right for you and enjoy the video that Phil has put together."
