Lifting Black Voices - Panel Discussion

Stories shape our world, influence perceptions, and drive change. Lifting Black Voices brings together a dynamic panel of Black media professionals to discuss the importance of storytelling in amplifying Black experiences, histories, and perspectives. Through their work in journalism, broadcasting, and digital media, these storytellers shed light on issues that matter, challenge narratives, and create space for authentic representation. Join us for an engaging conversation on the transformative power of sharing Black stories and how media can be a force for empowerment, advocacy, and community connection.
